RAILROAD COMMITTEE IS URGING ACTION

Bill Is Advocated Granting Charter for Electric Railway Between Anacostia and Suitland.

The railroad committee of the Suitland Improvement Association, which is composed of residents of that suburb, together with the suburb of Anacostia, met last evening at the home of Dr. Conrad H. Weise, in Nichols Avenue, for the purpose of completing its report to the main body, which holds its February gathering this evening. Charles E. Entwistle, also of Anacostia, chairman of the committee, presided last evening. This committee, it was learned, has been working for months in an effort to secure the passage of a bill granting a charter for the construction of an electric railway between Anacostia and Suitland, by way of Good Hope and the Bowen Roads, for the accommodation of the residents of the former suburb, as well as persons residing in Good Hope, Garfield, and the extreme eastern part of Anacostia, also was learned that so far the bill has not been introduced in Congress, although there is reason to believe, the committee members state that it will be introduced upon within the near future. Reports presented indicated that sufficient funds have been subscribed to construct the road within a short time after the charter was granted.

Maurice McGrath, organizer of Anacostia Council, No. 16, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, presided at a meeting of that organization held last evening in the local Masonic Hall. Final arrangements were made for the patriotic service to be held on Sunday evening next in the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, when the members of the various councils in the district have been invited to be the guests of Anacostia Council. At that service, Reporters present indicated that a large number would attend, and it is expected between 300 and 400 persons will be in the body.

The February meeting of the Minnesota Avenue Improvement Association was held last evening at the home of Dr. George C. Hayvenor in Minnesota Avenue, with the following officers in attendance: President, H. C. Hayvenor, Vice-president, H. C. Hayvenor, Secretary, C. C. Johnson, Treasurer, C. C. Johnson, and the following members displayed at the Contest Building, 211 Thirtieth Street Northwest.
